

Catherine Lang

Catherine Lang has worked in management and consulting with social economy organizations for over 25 years. Through her consulting practice, C. Lang Consulting, Catherine partners with national, provincial, and community based groups with a key focus on innovation in community and economic development.

Catherine's work engages funders, nonprofits, academics, networks, and emerging community groups in partnership development, evaluation, program design, knowledge creation and social entrepreneurship. A seasoned facilitator, Catherine has presented webinars and workshops, and coached groups on collaboration, community based evaluation and social enterprise.

She has co-authored papers, tools and guides for nonprofits, including: Innovation Pathways: Tools for Rural & Northern Community Innovation, 2006; Strengthening Collaboration in the Not-for-Profit Sector (Ontario Trillium Foundation); and Building Collaboration in and With the Nonprofit Sector (ONN). She is a partner in the Collaboration Coach project.

Catherine holds a Masters degree in Adult Education as well as a BA in Sociology and Philosophy and a Bachelor of Social Work.

C. Lang Consulting

416 588-7129

cathy@clangconsulting.com

www.clangconsulting.com

Heather Graham

Heather Graham is an independent consultant who has worked with a wide range of not-for-profit organizations and funders over the past 16 years to build their capacity to be effective collaboration partners. In addition, she has provided partnership development support to numerous community hubs, coalitions, networks, and partnerships across the Greater Toronto Area. Heather brings extensive experience as a facilitator and trainer, working with various funders, associations, and organizations to offer workshops and webinars on collaboration, board development, strategic planning and community-based research. She has also had the opportunity to be involved in some key collaboration research and policy initiatives, including Hospital-Community Collaboration (University of Toronto); Service Delivery Collaboration in Toronto (Wellesley Institute); Strengthening Collaboration in the Not-for-Profit Sector (Ontario Trillium Foundation); and Building Collaboration in and with the Nonprofit Sector (Ontario Nonprofit Network).

H. Graham Consulting

905-522-3758

heather@hgrahamconsulting.com

www.hgrahamconsulting.com

Linda Mollenhauer

Linda Mollenhauer has worked with funders, national, provincial and community based organizations in the not-for-profit sector for over 30 years. In her consulting practice, she has guided over 100 organizations and strategic alliances toward excellence in governance, leadership, change management, engagement and planning. She facilitates processes that find consensus among diverse stakeholders dealing in complex issues, while also arriving at the best possible outcomes.

Linda has done workshops and webinars and published many practical resources, including Building a Nonprofit Network; Benchmarks of Excellence for the Voluntary Sector; A Framework for Success for Nonprofit Federations; and A Culture of Accountability. She has also coauthored research papers such as: Strengthening Collaboration in the Not-for-Profit Sector (Ontario Trillium Foundation); and Building Collaboration in and With the Nonprofit Sector (ONN).

Prior to her consulting practice, Linda was President and CEO of the Canadian Centre for Philanthropy (IMAGINE Canada) and was the Director of its national social marketing program encouraging giving and volunteering. Recent volunteer activity includes helping to develop an accreditation program setting out organizational and governance standards for the sector. She has a Master's degree in communication from Boston University.

Mollenhauer Consulting

416-767-4059

mollenhauerl@rogers.com

www.mollenhauer.ca